

George Arnold-Rule

George Arnold-Rule, born October 24, 1998, died unexpectedly on January 7, 2009 during a medical procedure at the University of Missouri Veterinary Teaching Hospital in Columbia, Missouri during a valiant 30-day battle with thymic lymphoma.

the adored grand-dog of Joyce & Richard Arnold (aka "Nanny & Poppy") and Josie and John Rule, and was beloved by his many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Georgie, an Airedale Terrier, was the cherished companion and eternal soul mate of Elisa Arnold & Dave Rule of Shiloh, Illinois, whom he adopted on July 17, 1999. He was Georgie's exuberance, intelligence, and carefree personality brightened hundreds of lives and lifted the spirits of everyone he encountered. His passing leaves an excruciating void that will never be filled.

Visitation: Friends may call from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday, January 10th at the Sunset Hill Cemetery Mausoleum in Glen Carbon, Illinois. Graveside interment will be held at 3 p.m.

Memorials: Donations in George's name may be made to The Barkley House (a proposed guesthouse at the University of Missouri College of Veterinary Medicine) or to The Dog and Cat Cancer Fund (founded by Zuke's, George's favorite brand of treats.)

For additional visitation and memorial information and to leave on-line condolences and favorite "Georgie memories" please visit: www.GeorgetheAiredale.com